

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Borough Deaths—Accidents and Incidents—News of the Town.

George Dinkle, an employee in the machine shops of Ferrotet and Hoyt, situated at Bridge and Commerce streets, while working a circular saw in the pattern department yesterday afternoon, had the third finger of his right hand cut off above the second joint. Dr. Taylor dressed the injured member.

The postoffice hours appear to change with the closing hours of the stores. From September 1st until further notice the office will close at 7:30 p. m., Saturdays excepted when eight o'clock will be the closing hour. It is well to remember these things.

The members of the Archery club were today having yesterday afternoon to the residence of J. Houston Millin, at Norwood, where, until too dark to see the target, they practiced with their bows and arrows.

The Shawnee fire company will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening. From a solid piece of wood Jerry Koch has just completed the statue of a man which will grace the front of his cigar store on Locust street. The proportions given the statue are very good and the work reflects much credit on Mr. Koch as an artist.

It is said the "Our Boys" baseball club of this place anticipated a defeat at the hands of the "Furnace Hill" nine of Middletown when the game of yesterday between the teams was played. It was realized, the score at the ending of the ninth inning standing 21 to 17 in favor of the home club. The "Our Boys" played with several substitutes. The honors are now even, a victory and a defeat being scored by each club. The game will probably be played to decide the championship.

Samuel Eddy, a brakeman on freight engine No. 223, had the index finger of his right hand mashed at Locust Place last night while coupling cars. The injury was dressed by Dr. Taylor on the arrival of the train at Columbia.

The committee of ladies to whom has been entrusted the running of the fair to be given this month, commencing on the 9th, for the benefit of the "Citizens' Band" will hold their last meeting in the band room this evening, where the final arrangements will be made.

The ladies' aid society of the M. E. church at their social, held in the church parlors last evening, took in about eighteen dollars. The evening was held without expenses. The evening is said to have been very pleasantly spent.

Jacob Strawbridge, an old resident of Washington borough, died last night after a lingering illness at the age of seventy-six years. The funeral services were held on Sunday morning next from the Bethel of the Church of God.

M. Bacheneimer has just placed a gas reflector in the show window of his store. The three-year-old daughter of George Ziegler, P. R. R. employee, fell down the cellar steps at her home on Walnut street, below Third street, yesterday afternoon, and was quite severely injured. Drs. Arnor and Kay did what they could to relieve the sufferings of the little one, who to-day experiences but little pain.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church, met in the church parlors yesterday afternoon.

Miss Mary Bowman, of Marietta, Pa., is visiting in Columbia, the guest of Miss E. Purdie.

Mr. Robert E. Haldeman, of Columbus, Ohio, who has been visiting his family in Columbia for the past month or two, left here this morning to resume his duties in the former place.

Sarah Davis, a colored woman who is separated from her husband, Daniel Davis, has brought suit before Justice Evans against Sadie Yellets, a quadroon, who is charged with being too intimate with the aforesaid Daniel. Sarah is unable to substantiate her charge and defendant was released.

The Garfield and Arthur marching club at a meeting held last evening decided to adopt an eighty-five cent uniform. Major Yeoman of the 5th was elected treasurer of the club.

An association composed exclusively of members of the Vigilant Fire Company will give a social in the engine house parlor on Saturday evening next. Wolf's orchestra will furnish the music.

Let the voters remember that to-day is the last day on which they can be assessed and act accordingly. The assessors may be found at the different polling-places. It is well to make sure of these things.

The Western Union telegraph office at this place is now what may be called a "department office," as the telegraph instruments are separated one from the other by a thick glass partition placed in position to decide the sound of one instrument while the operator works on another. The instruments being together and the operator unprotected, that official was heretofore bothered a good bit.

Walter Kaufman, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., is visiting C. C. Kaufman here. The cards, menus, etc., used by Messrs. Lipp and Black at Whiteland, in their contract with the Pennsylvania railroad company were brought here to-day on a couple of freight cars.

The river is somewhat higher than it was a week ago, but not close to low water mark. The rise is nowhere near what we supposed it would be.

More School Changes. Owing to the over-crowding of the Mulberry street secondary school, the superintending committee of the school board have been compelled to transfer about twenty of the pupils to Mr. Gates's Rockland street secondary. About twenty pupils of Miss Brulaker's girls secondary school have been transferred to Miss Hantch's boys secondary. These transfers, of course, create dissatisfaction, but they cannot for the present be avoided. As soon as the new Lemon street school house is finished, and the contractors are under bonds to have it finished by the 1st of December, there will be no secondary pupils in the city who will be both boys and girls' school in the building.

Left by a Young Man. Susan Brown is the name of a 17 year old maiden from Harrisburg, who came to the backup last night and asked for lodging. She said that she was brought to this city by a young man whose name she did not know. He was a resident of Reading. Yesterday he met her on the street in Harrisburg and asked her to accompany him to Lancaster. She agreed to do so and he paid her fare. He left her in the depot and it was not long before she found that he was not coming back. She then went to the station house. The mayor allowed Susan to depart this morning.

The Sunday School Convention. At the coming state Sunday school convention the following gentlemen will be present as lecturers: Rev. Henry M. Harmon, of Dickinson college, Carlisle, Pa. Subject: "The credibility of the Gospels." Rev. J. L. Flood, editor of Chesapeake Journal, subject: "Woman and her place in the world." Rev. Jesse D. Young, of Altoona. Subject: "What do our young people read?" James McCormick, of Harrisburg. Subject: "How can we keep the big boys in our schools?"

Mayor's Court. The mayor had before him this morning one drunken and disorderly person, who was committed to jail for 5 days, and two vagrants who were discharged.

John Stettler for drunken and disorderly conduct was this morning committed to jail by Alderman Springer for 10 days.

Smelling Down Irish Legislation. LONDON, September 2.—The resolution of Mr. Thomas P. O'Connor, Home Ruler, member for Galway "that it is no longer just or expedient that all measures for the improvement of the condition of the people of England, Ireland and Scotland should be at the mercy of a body consisting of legislators, hereditary and irresponsible," was moved in the house of commons, in the small hours of Wednesday morning.

After the burial bill was seconded by Mr. Tabouther (Liberal) member for Northampton. The Marquis of Hartington humorously deprecated the raising of a great constitutional question at half past three o'clock in the morning. The house then divided on the question. FOR G.I.S. A Man Garrotted in Daylight. NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Yesterday noon as James Mooney, a mechanic, was passing through Sixth avenue on his way home to dinner, two men suddenly pounced on him, knocked him down, beat him in a fearful manner and rifled his pockets of one dollar and sixty-five cents. A crowd gathered about but the men drew revolvers and defied them to molest them. Late last night Wm.
